Poultry Growers Urged to Follow Biosecurity

By Linda Breazeale
MSU Extension Service

All Mississippians who raise any species of poultry are being urged to follow strict biosecurity practices and review new requirements regarding sales and exhibitions.

Tom Tabler, poultry specialist with the Mississippi State University Extension Service, said that while bird flu is not a threat to human health or food safety, an outbreak would endanger backyard flocks and the state's nearly $3 billion commercial poultry industry.

"There have been some isolated cases of avian influenza in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia. Two cases in Tennessee were highly pathogenic, but all others were low pathogenic," Tabler said. "Regardless, we don't want any cases in Mississippi."

Tabler said biosecurity and avoiding birds that could be from infected areas are keys to keeping Mississippi flocks safe. Unfortunately, wild birds, especially migrating waterfowl, can also contribute to outbreaks. Avoiding them and their droppings is critical to biosecurity.

"Anyone going near poultry should wear dedicated footwear or plastic boots. They should wash hands before entering and when leaving bird areas," he said. "People should even change clothes and boots after trips to any location where other poultry growers/keepers could have been, including farm supply stores, coffee shops and other locations."

Tabler discouraged growers from mixing new birds with existing flocks without quarantining the birds for 30 days.

"Purchase birds from National Poultry Improvement Plan, or NPIP, certified healthy flocks only," he said. "Locations where different bird species -- such as turkeys, ducks or peacocks -- from unknown original locations are comingled have an increased risk."

Dr. Jim Watson, state veterinarian with the Mississippi Board of Animal Health, said the state is enforcing existing regulations at poultry sales and exhibitions because of the outbreaks across the Southeast.

"No poultry -- including chickens, ducks, turkeys, quail, pheasants and pea fowl-- are allowed from Kentucky or Georgia because of their current outbreaks," Watson said. "Only Mississippi birds that are part of the NPIP program and have paperwork to prove it are allowed to be shown or sold at public events."

Watson said birds from states other than those two Southeastern states must have proof they are from an NPIP-Avian Influenza Monitored Program or have a negative avian influenza test.

Every poultry owner in Mississippi should visit the state veterinarian's "Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza" website for details at http://hpai.ms.gov/. Animal health entry regulations can be found at http://www.mdac.ms.gov/.

Chicken and Eggs – A Tasty Combination

****

Hearty Healthy Chicken Salad

1 broiler-fryer chicken, cooked, skinned, boned and cut into chunks
1 cup small macaroni, cooked
3 tomatoes, cubed
1 cup sliced celery
1/2 cup chopped sweet pepper
3 tablespoons chopped spring onion greens
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon oregano
1 cup chicken broth
1 clove garlic, split
1/4 cup wine vinegar

In a large bowl, mix together chicken (while still warm), macaroni, tomatoes, celery, red pepper and onion greens. Sprinkle salt, pepper and oregano over mixture, In a small saucepan, place chicken broth and garlic; bring to boil over high temperature and boil for 10 minutes or until broth is reduced to 1/2 cup. Add wine vinegar and pour over salad, mixing well. Chill until cold. Makes six servings.

Pulled Pork and Egg Wrap

1 tablespoon unsalted butter
1/2 jalapeno pepper, minced
6 eggs, beaten
1 1/2 cups fully-cooked shredded pork in BBQ sauce, warmed
6 Boston lettuce leaves

Heat butter in a large nonstick skillet over medium heat until hot. Add jalapeno; cook one minute. Pour in eggs. As eggs begin to set, gently pull the eggs across the pan with an inverted turner, forming large soft curds. Continue cooking – pulling, lifting and folding eggs – until thickened and no visible liquid egg remains. Do not stir constantly. Spoon barbecue pork and egg onto each lettuce leaf, dividing evenly. Serve immediately.

Tea Time Chicken Tartlets

1 egg
3 tablespoons mascarpone cheese
6 canned artichoke hearts, roughly diced
1 cup arugula, chopped
2 cups finely diced rotisserie chicken, skinned
Salt and pepper to taste
1 teaspoon dried tarragon
8 sheets phyllo dough 14 x 9-inches

Beat together egg and mascarpone. Combine with remaining ingredients, except phyllo, mixing well. Cut phyllo into small squares and place in mini-muffin tins. Place one teaspoon mascarpone-chicken mixture in each phyllo cup. Bake in preheated 375 degree oven for 10-15 minutes. Serve warm. Serves eight for appetizers.

Egg Bruschetta

1 mini French bread loaf (1/2 pound), cut into 16 slices
2 to 3 tablespoons olive oil
1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
1 4-ounce package goat cheese
1 7-ounce jar roasted red peppers, cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces
1/4 cup chopped fresh basil
4 hard-cooked (boiled) eggs, each cut into 4 slices
Salt and pepper to taste, optional
Additional basil for garnish, optional
Carrot sticks, optional

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Place bread slices on an ungreased baking sheet. In small bowl, stir together olive oil and seasoned salt. Brush evenly on bread slices. Bake bread for five to seven minutes or until lightly toasted. Spread approximately one tablespoon goat cheese evenly on each slice. Top each with two pieces red pepper. Sprinkle each with about 3/4 teaspoon basil. Arrange one egg slice on each. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, if desired. Garnish with additional basil, if desired. Serve with carrot sticks, if desired.

Crunchy Chicken Nuggets

1 1/2 pounds chicken breast or thigh chunks (40-48 pieces)
1/4 cup milk
1 egg
1 1/2 cups crumbs, crushed sour cream and onion potato chips
1/4 teaspoon thyme
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons margarine, melted

In a small bowl, mix together the milk and egg with a fork by beating slightly. On a piece of wax paper, place potato chip crumbs and mix with thyme and pepper. Line a shallow baking pan with foil and spray with vegetable cooking spray. Dip each chunk of chicken in egg-milk mixture; roll in seasoned chip crumbs and arrange in a single layer on foil-lined baking pan. Repeat until all chunks are arranged in the pan, and let sit for 15 minutes. Drizzle melted margarine over chicken and place in oven with temperature set at 425 degrees F. Bake about 30 minutes or until chunks are brown and crisp and fork can be inserted in chicken with ease.

Advertising Guidelines

The Mississippi Market Bulletin is published on the 1st and 15th of each month by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. Through its classified advertising section, the Bulletin provides a forum for Mississippi residents to buy and sell agricultural related items while also giving statewide exposure to small farmers who might not normally have the economic resources for such widespread advertising. The Bulletin does not publish commercial or display ads and all items offered for sale must have been produced, raised, grown or operated on the seller's property. Businesses, corporations, dealerships, brokers or other commercial enterprises are not allowed to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin.

Advertising rules and guidelines have been established for the Mississippi Market Bulletin in order to comply with regulations enforced by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and to maintain the objectives of the publication. The staff of the Mississippi Market Bulletin reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any advertisement.

The Mississippi Market Bulletin assumes no responsibility for any notice appearing in the Bulletin nor for any transaction resulting from published notices. Advertisers are cautioned that it is against the law to misrepresent any product offered for sale in public notices or advertisements carried in any publication that is delivered by the United States Postal Service.

- In order to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin you must be a subscriber. To place an ad, you must include your name, mailing address and account number that the subscription is listed under on each ad that you submit (this information will not be printed). Each subscriber is allowed to advertise two ads in the Bulletin, listing one ad per category.
- All listings must be agriculture related (raised, grown, produced or operated on your farm). At the top of your ad, write the category that the ad should be listed under. We reserve the right to edit, revise or reject each ad. Please print or type your ad.

Mississippi Egg Marketing Board Presents Mustard Seed Easter Eggs to First Lady Deborah Bryant

By Alex Jacks
Communications and
Marketing Specialist - MDAC

To celebrate the Easter season, the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board recently presented First Lady Deborah Bryant with seven eggs decorated by The Mustard Seed community members.

In the past, the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board conducted a public contest to find the perfect Easter egg to deliver to Bryant. However, this year the board worked with The Mustard Seed, a Christian community for adults with developmental disabilities, to create the eggs.

Seven Mustard Seed community members were given the opportunity to decorate an egg that represents the various regions of the state of Mississippi and its culture. The egg descriptions and artists were "I love music" by Logan Chew, "Teddy Bear" by Savannah Wilson, "It's my beautiful state" by Caroline Stone, "Anchors away in the Mississippi River" by Megan Schmidt, "Lighthouse and Sailboats" by Charlie Winstead, "Cotton Boll" by Ricky Fleming and "Lonesome Pines" by Linda Byrd.

All seven artists, along with the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board and Mississippi Agriculture and Commerce Commissioner Cindy Hyde-Smith, were invited to the Governor's mansion to present Bryant with the Easter eggs.

"Allowing The Mustard Seed community members to create the Easter eggs and present them to the first lady was a wonderful idea," Hyde-Smith said. "It was easy to see it meant a lot to the artists to be honored for their work. I am thrilled I was able to be a part of the presentation."

For more information about the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board, contact Jennifer Thompson at (601) 359-1144 or email jennifer@mdac.ms.gov.

Mississippi Governor Phil Bryant and First Lady Deborah Bryant accepted seven decorated Easter Eggs from Mississippi Egg Marketing Board members Gene Robertson, Board President Alan Andrews and Jennifer Thompson, Mississippi Agriculture and Commerce Commissioner Cindy Hyde-Smith and Mustard Seed community members Linda Byrd, Ricky Fleming, Caroline Stone, Savannah Wilson, Logan Chew, Charlie Winstead and Megan Schmidt.
