It's Time for the 49th Dixie National Livestock Show and Rodeo!

By Donna West
Marketing Division, MDAC

The 49th Annual Dixie National Livestock Show and Rodeo, the largest rodeo east of the Mississippi River, has made its way to the Mississippi State Fairgrounds and showcases events from January 25 through February 18. This near-month long extravaganza of livestock shows, equine events, agricultural showcases, and top class rodeo entertainment is one of the largest economic impacts for both the Jackson-Metro area and Central Mississippi drawing participants and visitors from all over Mississippi and around the country. This multi-million dollar, annual event draws well over 100,000 visitors to the Fairgrounds, livestock participants from almost every county in Mississippi, and has been a time honored tradition for many families to either participate or attend the Dixie National every year.

In addition to the livestock and rodeo events, there are many family friendly events and children's activities that take place each year at the Dixie National. This year you can check out the Dixie National Rodeo Dance, Collegiate Beef Judging Contest, Antique Tractor Expo, Farrier Competitions, Stockdog Demonstrations, Quarter Horse Show Expo, the Southern Classic Horse Sale, the Mississippi Cattlemen's Ag-Tastic show, Culinary Schools Chili Cooking Contest, and for something free and delicious to eat you can drop by the Mississippi Farmers Market for the annual Dixie National Rodeo Breakfast. Not to mention, a variety of other livestock shows, expos, and competitions are offered as well. For details on these events and more, see pages 18 and 19.

"For forty-nine years this festive and fun 3-week showcase has become one of the largest celebrations of cowboys, cowgirls, livestock showmanship, top rodeo riders, and country western music in the South," said Cindy Hyde-Smith, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce.

The heart of the Dixie National continues to be the 4-H and FFA livestock shows. At the five district shows each year, hundreds of FFA and 4-H members show their market animals, with only those receiving blue ribbons making the Mississippi Junior Roundup at the Dixie National. The crowning glory of these shows is the Sale of Junior Champions, which will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, February 6 at the Trade Mart. The sales of the 2013 event totaled $316,914. Since the event began 44 years ago, total sales have grossed over $5 million.

The fun and excitement of the Rodeo begins on February 6, and continues through February 12. The best of Smith, Harper, and Morgan rodeo stock will be on display as cowboys and cowgirls compete for the win and the ultimate gold buckle. Special entertainers are featured each day of the rodeo, and kicking off this year's line-up is Thomas Rhett; also appearing are Corey Smith, Eric Paslay, Ronnie Milsap, Parmalee, Craig Morgan, and the Eli Young Band.

Be sure to catch the ever impressive arrival of the Dixie National Wagon Train to the fairgrounds on February 6 and 7. And the always fun and lively Dixie National Parade, which gets under way at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 8, includes an array of car clubs, floats, motorcycles, marching groups, horses, wagons, riding clubs, beauty queens, and so much more. Several very special guests will grace this year's parade: The World Champion Express Clydesdales! These beautiful horses will participate in the parade followed by a special meet and greet event from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Trade Mart. Enjoy food, music, and an opportunity to meet these gentle giants and have your photo taken with these renowned Express Clydesdales; it's free to the public, but any donations will benefit the Blair E. Batson Children's Hospital.

Billy Orr, Director of the Mississippi Fair Commission emphasizes "Each year we strive to bring together a great line-up of entertainment, talented rodeo participants, exceptional young people, and a safe and comfortable fairground complex for those attending the Dixie National." Adds Commissioner Hyde-Smith, "The Dixie National offers something for everyone and celebrates so much of what is important to us here in Mississippi, so come on down to the Fairgrounds and have a wonderful time."

From Our Kitchen To Yours

Riding the Trails and Campfire Favorites

*****

Campfire Sandwich

1/2 pound ham, chopped (or any other variety of meat)
1 cup grated cheese (your favorite kind)
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
1/2 cup pickle relish
6-8 olives, chopped
Butter, as needed
6 hamburger buns

Butter buns on both halves, and set aside. Mix together the ham, cheese mayonnaise, pickle relish, and olives; spread mixture on buns equally. Wrap each sandwich separately in heavy foil and seal tightly. Heat on hot coals for 4 to 5 minutes; turn and heat the other side for 3 to 4 minutes.

One Skillet Campfire Breakfast

4 large potatoes, cubed
1 pound sausage
1 onion, diced
1 dozen eggs
2 cups cheese, cubed or grated
Salt and pepper to taste
1/2 cup oil

Fry potatoes in the oil until soft, add onion. Move the onion and potatoes to cooler side of the pan; break up sausage and fry on the hotter side of the pan. Once the sausage has cooked through, mix with the potatoes and onion. Crack eggs over the mixture, and scramble until the eggs are cooked. Cover with cheese and take pan off of the fire. Serve with soft tortillas.

Campfire Bananas Foster

1 banana per person
1 tablespoon butter, from squeeze container
1/4 cup light brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon rum extract
1/2 cup diced pound cake, approximately 1 slice per person
1 cup prepared frozen whipped topping, French Vanilla flavor, thawed
1 dash ground cinnamon

Remove the skin from the bananas (DO NOT cook with peel on). Place banana on non-stick side of a double 12-inch sheet of aluminum foil; cut each banana crosswise into nine bite-sized pieces, being careful not to cut the foil. Squeeze tablespoon butter over banana pieces. Sprinkle with brown sugar, vanilla, cinnamon, and rum extract; wrap tightly in foil, being sure to seal ends. Place on grill over gas, campfire, or coals, seam side up. Cook for six minutes, and remove from the heat; open carefully. Top with diced pound cake, spoon the whipped topping onto the dessert, and sprinkle topping with a dash of cinnamon. Enjoy and eat directly from the foil.

Campfire Bundles

1 large sweet onion
1 medium green bell pepper, sliced
1 medium red bell pepper, sliced
1 medium yellow bell pepper, sliced
4 medium potatoes, sliced 1/2 -inch thick
6 medium carrots, sliced 1/4 -inch thick
1 small cabbage, sliced
2 medium tomatoes, chopped
1 1/2 pounds fully cooked Polish sausage, cut into 1/2 -inch pieces
1/2 cup butter
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Place vegetables in order listed on three pieces of double layered heavy duty aluminum foil (about 18"x18"). Add sausage; dot with butter, and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Fold foil around the middle and seal tightly. Grill, covered, over medium heat for 30 minutes; turn and grill another 30 minutes or until the vegetables are tender.

Campfire Trout

9 pounds trout, cleaned and prepared
1/3 cup white onion, thinly sliced
1/4 cup green bell pepper, thinly sliced
1/2 bunch fresh cilantro
1 roma tomato, thinly sliced
1/2 cup butter
Seasoning salt
Aluminum foil

Lay each piece of fish on a large piece of aluminum foil; sprinkle the inside and outside of the fish with seasoning salt. Stuff each fish with a couple of onion slices, bell pepper slices, cilantro stems (leaves attached), butter, and a slice of tomato. Wrap trout tightly in the foil and place on the campfire turning the fish every 2 to 3 minutes. Cook the fish for a total of 5 minutes and enjoy. Note: The fish is ready when the skin sticks to the foil and easily peels off and the meat comes right off the bone.

When Daddy Let Me Drive

By Lise Foy, Director
MS Agriculture & Forestry Museum

Alan Jackson must have been watching me when he wrote the song When Daddy Let Me Drive. Daddy had an old 1955 Chevrolet truck - three speed on the column - that he would let me drive in circles in the pasture. The clutch was tricky, and the truck would lurch and buck and I would laugh. He would say, "Now, don't laugh." And, I would laugh harder, and the truck would go dead.

I suppose many farm kids learn to drive this way. Probably, even more often, the first vehicle most farm kids learn to drive is a tractor. For me, before the truck, there was a 1952 8N Ford tractor. The tractor is easy because you just let off the clutch and it goes; there is no shifting to master.

The Ag Museum has quite a collection of antique tractors. Recently added to the collection is a 1927 International Harvester Farmall Regular donated by the Huddleston Family of Heidelberg, Mississippi, in 2013. The tractor was taken into the education collection, which means it will be used on the Museum Campus during events and programs instead of simply being on display for prosperity.

According to the February 6, 2002, Jones County edition of the Laurel Leader-Call, Charles Huddleston and Bobby Brownlee were inspired to take on the restoration of the tractor after a visit to the Ag Museum in 1999. After taking a month to get the tractor that had belonged to Huddleston's Father out of the woods, the work began.

There are a couple of things about this particular tractor that make it special; the first being its rubber tires. Apparently, when Mr. Huddleston purchased the tractor new in 1927, he requested it be outfitted with rubber tires, where this model normally came with steel wheels. This modification made the tractor double in price, bringing its original bill to a whopping $950. The second particular detail of interest is that the body of the tractor is not red like most Farmalls of the era. It is grey with red wheels.

The complete restoration took the two men two years to complete. The tractor had been sitting idle in the pasture for thirty-six years.

This 'new' tractor is one of the oldest in the collection at the Museum. When not in use, the tractor may be viewed in the antique car shed behind the Heritage Center.

Other tractors of interest to be viewed at the Ag Museum inside the Heritage Center include a 1939 John Deere, a 1935 Case International, and a 1942 Ford Ferguson, just to name a few. There are many others on the grounds of various makes and models that were used for different purposes.

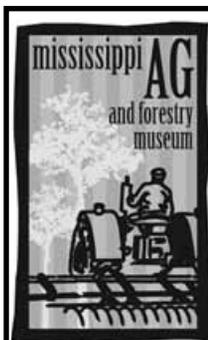

The 8N Ford of my childhood was used to cut grass with a finishing mower, haul firewood, and to pull a wooden wagon that my brothers, and I loved to ride in. It is still running and no doubt will pull my twins in that wagon alongside the other grandkids before too long.

I know my girls will be taught to drive by their Daddy...probably on a tractor in the pasture. That day will come all too soon I'm sure. But, for now, the twins are rolling over and cutting teeth.

The Ag Museum is located at 1150 Lakeland Drive in Jackson and is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In addition to our gallery and exhibit spaces, the Ag Museum also has room for your event, whether it's a meeting, a wedding, or other special event. ## Advertising Guidelines

The Mississippi Market Bulletin is published on the 1st and 15th of each month by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The Mississippi Market Bulletin is an important way for the Department to disseminate news and information about issues affecting Mississippi's agriculture industry and the Department's operations.

Through its classified advertising section, the Bulletin provides a forum for Mississippi residents to buy and sell agricultural related items while also giving statewide exposure to small farmers who might not normally have the economic resources for such widespread advertising. The Bulletin does not publish commercial or display ads and all items offered for sale must have been produced, raised, grown or operated on the seller's property. Businesses, corporations, dealerships, brokers or other commercial enterprises are not allowed to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin.

4-H and FFA Youth Head to Jackson for the Annual Dixie National Junior Round-Up Livestock Shows

By MSU Ag Communications

Every year, for one week in early February, youth who raise livestock and participate in the 4-H & FFA livestock programs in Mississippi head to Jackson for the annual Dixie National Junior Round-Up Livestock Shows. These youth bring show entries from their junior livestock projects to compete for champions of their individual categories.

The Dixie National is the showcase for the 4-H & FFA livestock programs and livestock industry; it is also the site of the largest junior market livestock shows in Mississippi. The Champion and Reserve Champion of the Junior Steer Show, Junior Market Lamb Show, Junior Market Swine Show, Junior Market Goat Show, and Overall Champion Mississippi Bred steer, lamb, and hog are singled out for a special tribute at the Dixie National. The exhibitors purchased many of these animals last spring, and these young exhibitors with champions have worked long and hard to raise their outstanding animals.

First, boys and girls exhibit their animals at one of the five district shows within the State. If they receive a blue ribbon on their animal at the district show, they can then participate in the Dixie National. There were over 1,600 market animals at the five district shows and over 1,100 ended up at the Dixie National Junior Round-Up, from which the champions were selected. These champion animals were sold to the highest bidder at the Sale of Junior Champions auction.

After a week of intense competition last year, 42 animals and their exhibitors qualified for the 44th annual Dixie National Sale of Junior Champions, Mississippi's premier youth livestock auction.

Thirteen hogs, twelve lambs, nine goats, and eight steers were auctioned off at the Mississippi State Fairgrounds' Trade Mart. For the first time, the animals were sold by the head instead of by the pound to make it easier to calculate multiple buyers' bids.

The 2013 sale brought in bids with a preliminary total of $316,914. This figure included about $88,000 for the steers, $72,250 for the hogs, $61,750 for the lambs and $49,500 for the goats. Donors added more than $45,000 to animals in the sale and in scholarship contributions after bidding closed.

Two new sales records were set: the highest price paid for a goat at $15,500 and $25,000 for a steer. In 2013 the sale hit a major milestone when it passed the $5 million mark in funds raised over the sale's 44-year history.

The Sale of Junior Champions continues to mean a lot to our Mississippi youth livestock program. The 44 sales have grossed a very impressive $5,125,382.40. The first sale in 1970 had a gross total of $7,621.35. This outstanding activity has come a long way in 44 years!

We salute all buyers, contributors, sale committee members, Extension staff members assisting with the sale, and other supporters who help make this a special event.
