17th Annual Jackson Garden & Patio Show

By Haley Barrett
Mississippi Nursery &
Landscape Association, Inc.

Join us for the 17th Annual Jackson Garden & Patio Show March 14th, 15th & 16th at the Mississippi Trade Mart on the Mississippi State Fairgrounds. The Mississippi Nursery and Landscape Association (MNLA) is excited to bring so many vendors together in one central location for all of your garden and patio needs - flowers, trees, landscape professionals, equipment, garden accessories, yard art, ironwork, pottery, and much, much more. Admission is only $6 per person, children 12 and under get in free, and as always, the parking is free.

New for 2014 is Gardening Demonstrations. These exciting 'how to' demonstrations will be located on the showroom floor and will include topics such as: Fairy Gardens, Succulents, and Mixed Containers. And since the Jackson Garden & Patio Show is a family friendly event, we have also added 'make and take' demonstrations to the Children's Activity Area to teach kids fun gardening skills. Kids will not only be given an opportunity to plant a flower to take home, but at 11 a.m. & 2 p.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. on Sunday, our volunteers will be showing them how to make Plant People and Egg Heads. Thanks to sponsors Ball Seed Company and BWI Companies for sponsoring this area.

Join us for gardening seminars all three days. Find out about the hot plants available at this year's show along with many other seminars. For a complete list of seminars and demonstrations, visit www.msnla.org. All seminars and demonstrations are free with paid admission.

As in years past, attendees will get the opportunity to view several of central Mississippi's finest landscaper's work in the Outdoor Living Spaces competition area. This year's theme will be Entertaining.

These Outdoor Living Spaces, located in the middle of the exhibit hall will serve as the focal point for this year's show, and will give you great ideas on how to make your outdoor space the best it can be.

As always, the experts from Mississippi State University Extension Service will be there to answer any questions, provide information, and test soil for free.

While at the show, be sure and register for the fabulous door prizes donated from our wonderful exhibitors.

Of course the real stars of the show are always the flowers. You'll find this year's Mississippi Medallion Award Winners, tropicals, ferns, trees, bedding plants, and tons of garden and outdoor accessories.

Watch for advertisements featuring a $5 off coupon, good toward $50.00 purchases at any exhibitor's booth.

Visit our web page www.msnla.org, find us on Facebook, or call 601-919-8111 for more information about the 2014 Mississippi Garden & Patio Shows. Like us at Mississippi Garden & Patio Shows on Facebook for a chance to win tickets. This year's event is sponsored by Miss 103, Entergy Mississippi, and Regions Bank.

Agriculture Council of America Announces 2014 National Ag Day

By Agriculture Council of America

The Agriculture Council of America (ACA) will host National Agriculture Day on March 25, 2014. This will mark the 41st anniversary of National Ag Day which is celebrated in classrooms and communities across the country. The theme for National Ag Day is "Agriculture: 365 Sunrises and 7 Billion Mouths to Feed."

On March 25, 2014, the ACA will host major events in the nation's capital including the Mix-and-Mingle Luncheon and the National Celebration of Agriculture Dinner. Additionally, the ACA will bring approximately 100 college students to Washington to deliver the message of Ag Day to the Hill.

These events honor National Agriculture Day and mark a nationwide effort to tell the true story of American agriculture and remind citizens that agriculture is a part of all of us. A number of producers, agricultural associations, corporations, students, and government organizations involved in agriculture are expected to participate.

ACA is a nonprofit organization composed of leaders in the agricultural, food, and fiber community, dedicating its efforts to increasing the public's awareness of agriculture's role in modern society.

ACA believes that every American should:

- Understand how food and fiber products are produced.
- Appreciate the role agriculture plays in providing safe, abundant, and affordable products.
- Value the essential role of agriculture in maintaining a strong economy.

From Our Kitchen To Yours

Sensational Spring Salads

*****

Kale Salad with Bacon- Blue Cheese Vinaigrette

1 pound Yukon Gold potatoes, scrubbed, cut into 1-inch chunks
3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil-divided
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
1/2 teaspoon salt, divided
1/2 freshly ground pepper, divided
6 cups kale, stems removed, torn into bite-sized pieces
3 tablespoons cider vinegar
3 tablespoons crumbled blue cheese
2 tablespoons minced shallot
1 tablespoon honey mustard
1 tablespoon minced fresh parsley
3 pieces center-cut bacon, cooked & crumbled
2 Belgian endives, cored & sliced
1/4 cup currants or sweetened dried cranberries

Preheat oven to 400° F. Toss potatoes, 1 tablespoon oil, thyme and 1/4 teaspoon each salt and pepper in a large bowl. Spread mixture onto a large baking sheet (reserve the bowl). Roast potatoes, stirring once or twice, until tender and browned, 15 to 20 minutes. Place kale in the large bowl, add the hot potatoes and let stand for several minutes, tossing occasionally, until the potatoes are warm but not hot. Meanwhile, whisk the remaining 2 tablespoons oil, vinegar, blue cheese, shallot, mustard, parsley and the remaining 1/4 teaspoon salt and pepper in a small bowl. Drizzle the dressing over the warm salad. Add bacon, endive and currants (or cranberries); toss to combine. Serve immediately.

Citrus Salad with Olives & Radicchio

1 medium red onion, thinly sliced
1 cup white wine vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
2 oranges
2 pink or red grapefruit
1 clove garlic, minced
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
4 cups packed torn escarole leaves
4 cups torn radicchio
1 cup fresh parsley leaves
1 cup shredded Manchego or crumbled feta cheese
1 cup pitted green olives, quartered

Combine onion, vinegar and sugar in a small saucepan. Bring to a boil; cook, stirring occasionally, for 2 minutes. Strain through a fine-mesh sieve, reserving 6 tablespoons of the cooking liquid in a large bowl (discard the rest). Set the onion and liquid aside separately to cool. Meanwhile, slice off an end of each orange and grapefruit so they stand upright. In careful sculpting slices, cut off the remaining peel and white pith. Slice the fruit into 1/4-inch-thick rounds. Remove any seeds. Set the rounds aside. To make the dressing, add garlic and salt to the reserved onion-cooking liquid. Whisk in oil until well combined. Reserve 2 tablespoons of the dressing in a small bowl. Add escarole, radicchio and parsley to the dressing in the large bowl; toss well to coat. Arrange the greens on a large serving platter. Top with the citrus rounds, the reserved onion, cheese and olives. Drizzle the reserved dressing over the top.

Sweet Southern Egg Salad

3 tablespoons non-fat plain yogurt
3 tablespoons low-fat mayonnaise
2 teaspoons mustard
1/4 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
1/8 teaspoon salt
8 hard-boiled eggs
1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
1/4 cup sweet gherkin pickles
3 tablespoons chopped sweet onion

Combine yogurt, mayonnaise, mustard, pepper and salt in a medium bowl. Halve eggs and discard 4 of the yolks (or save for another use). Add whites and the remaining 4 yolks to the bowl and mash to desired consistency. Gently stir in celery, gherkins and onion. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

Loaded Garden Salad

2 cups chopped romaine lettuce
1 small bell pepper, diced
1 avocado, diced
1 cup sliced button mushrooms
1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved
1/2 cup alfalfa sprouts
1 clove garlic, minced
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup reduced-fat sour cream
1/3 cup buttermilk
1 tablespoon chopped fresh chives
1 tablespoon chopped fresh dill

Toss lettuce, bell pepper, avocado, mushrooms, tomatoes and sprouts in a large bowl. Mash garlic and salt together with a fork in a small bowl to make a coarse paste. Stir in sour cream, buttermilk, chives and dill until combined. Drizzle the dressing over the salad; gently toss to coat.

Is It Time for Spring Cleaning Yet?

By Lise Foy, Director
MS Agriculture & Forestry Museum

This time of year always tries my patience. Snow one day and 70 degrees the next. I am ready for Spring, open toed shoes, and digging in the dirt. Oh, Mother Nature, please make up your mind.

I remember one year when we lived in Wyoming when Easter came, as any good Southern Girl would do, I pulled out my spring dresses and open toed high heels for work attire. As I drove home the day after Easter in a snow storm, in my 1989 Ford Bronco that liked to get its back before its front on slick roads, I was forced into the reality that spring in Wyoming means something different than it does in Mississippi (or does it?). I got stuck in a snow bank in the driveway and had to walk a piece in those shoes. My husband still laughs about that one.

So now we wait anxiously for the last chance of frost, the first hint of green, the time to turn the soil and plant the seeds and to do some spring cleaning.

During the 19th century in America, before we had vacuum cleaners, March was often the best time for dusting because it was getting warm enough to open windows and doors (but not warm enough for insects to be a problem), and the high winds could carry the dust out of the house. I love the idea that you only had to dust once a year! Housekeeping is just not my forte.

The Fortenberry-Parkman Farmstead, located at the Ag Museum, is a fully intact Mississippi farm, including a house representative of the typical rural lifestyle in Mississippi from 1860 to 1960. Tremendous attention was paid to accuracy and detail during the relocation and restoration process. It was the authenticity resulting from such accuracy that convinced the Department of Archives and History that the site deserved designation as a Mississippi Landmark in 1988, even though the farm did not qualify for listing in the National Register of Historic Places, since it had been moved.

The farm was started by Jesse Fortenberry in the late 1850's or early 1860's. Jesse received a land grant from the U.S. Government in 1861. He went to fight in the Civil War in 1862, leaving his wife Amelia Wiggins Fortenberry and his only child, Melvina Christiann, to run the farm. He did not return to the farm and was buried in Fredericksburg, Virginia in 1863. Jesse's widow Amelia married Jasper Parkman in 1865. The Parkman Family raised four more children. One child, Eliza Cornelia, married the son of John Gazzie Fortenberry (Jesse Fortenberry's brother.) Story Littleton Parkman, the only son of Amelia and Jasper Parkman, spent his entire life on the farm. After he died in 1960, the farm ceased its operations.

The farm was donated to the Ag Museum in 1979 by Duthiel W. Fortenberry. In 1981, the farm buildings were recorded using photography, survey instruments, and labeling. The farm was dismantled and moved to its present site at the Museum. Each building is in its original position in relation to the other farm structures. The road which runs through the farm is representative of the county road which passed through the original site.

Now, I would bet that dirt road created a cause for dusting more than once a year for Amelia, Melvina, and Eliza.

The purpose of the Farmstead is to serve as a teaching tool where students and adults alike can learn about historic farming, animal husbandry, and how people lived and worked together in the 1920's. Live interpreters will immerse visitors into the life of the farmer. Nobody will have lived through the turn of the century, but they can readily imagine how simple or hard the lifestyle might have been before the advent of modern conveniences. When interpreters are not present, the static exhibits, artifacts, interpretive signage, and digital media will engage visitors by providing intellectual and emotional connections to agriculture as a way of life and an essential tool for survival.

The Ag Museum Foundation was awarded a Community Heritage Preservation Grant by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History this year to restore the farm house and outlying buildings to their original state. The completion of this project plays a key role in achieving our vision of instilling the importance of agriculture in every visitor by creating a unified narrative of history, culture, and heritage.

Work toward the restoration will begin this spring.

The Ag Museum is located at 1150 Lakeland Drive in Jackson and is open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In addition to our gallery and exhibit spaces, the Ag Museum also has room for your event, whether it's a meeting, a wedding, or other special event. Call (601) 432-4500 for information.

Red Rempson Benefit

By Gaila Oliver
Red Rempson Benefit

Ernest "Red" Rempson was a fiercer and longtime horse show judge for the Washington County Mounted Sheriff's Posse. Red taught horsemanship skills to young and old alike for more than 50 years. He showed Tennessee Walking horses over the entire South, earning him nationwide recognition. When he died suddenly in 2010, a group of his friends formed the non-profit Red Rempson Memorial Association to continue his legacy in the Delta. Their first effort resulted in the Washington County Board of Supervisors renaming the horse and livestock show facility on the convention center grounds in his memory. The Ernest "Red" Rempson Memorial Expo Center is the large, white building to the north of the Washington County Convention Center on Raceway Road in Greenville, MS.

The association's primary fundraiser is an annual Benefit Horse Show with judged horse classes and speed horse competitions. Everyone is welcome to participate throughout the afternoon in the family-friendly cake walks and arena games for $1 each. There will be raffle drawings for prizes donated by area businesses. Raffle tickets are $1 each and will be on sale at the ticket booth the day of the benefit. A concession stand will sell cold sodas, tasty hamburgers, chips, and more.

This fun-filled 2014 Benefit will be Saturday, March 15. It will begin at 1 p.m. with a Gold Rush for the little kids, followed by one of the several Cake Walks for all ages. Featured at this year's show will be a demonstration by the North MS Mounted Gunslingers. They will start riding and shooting targets as soon as the last judged class finishes around 5 p.m. Following the Gunslingers, the speed competition will feature horses racing around obstacles in timed patterns.

The Association will be using all proceeds to purchase large, quiet ceiling fans for the indoor show arena to keep horse and rider cool during the Delta summers.

Admission is free. For more information, go to Red's facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/RedRempsonMemorial>.

Advertising Guidelines

The Mississippi Market Bulletin is published on the 1st and 15th of each month by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The Mississippi Market Bulletin is an important way for the Department to disseminate news and information about issues affecting Mississippi's agriculture industry and the Department's operations.

Through its classified advertising section, the Bulletin provides a forum for Mississippi residents to buy and sell agricultural related items while also giving statewide exposure to small farmers who might not normally have the economic resources for such widespread advertising. The Bulletin does not publish commercial or display ads and all items offered for sale must have been produced, raised, grown or operated on the seller's property. Businesses, corporations, dealerships, brokers or other commercial enterprises are not allowed to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin.

Advertising rules and guidelines have been established for the Mississippi Market Bulletin in order to comply with regulations enforced by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and to maintain the objectives of the publication. The staff of the Mississippi Market Bulletin reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any advertisement.

The Mississippi Market Bulletin assumes no responsibility for any notice appearing in the Bulletin nor for any transaction resulting from published notices. Advertisers are cautioned that it is against the law to misrepresent any product offered for sale in public notices or advertisements carried in any publication that is delivered by the United States Postal Service.

- In order to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin you must be a subscriber. To place an ad, you must include your name, mailing address and account number that the subscription is listed under on each ad that you submit (this information will not be printed). Each subscriber is allowed to advertise two ads in the Bulletin, listing one ad per category.
- All listings must be agriculture related (raised, grown, produced or operated on your farm). At the top of your ad, write the category that the ad should be listed under. We reserve the right to edit, revise or reject each ad. Please print or type your ad.
- There is a 30-word limit for classified advertisements, this includes: price (on the item you are selling), your city, county and telephone number or name and complete address must be included in the ad if you do not list a telephone number. Ads cannot be held over from one issue to another. You must submit them for each issue.
- Out-of-state residents are not eligible to advertise with the following exceptions: Out-of-state ads are allowed in the "Wanting To Buy" category. Out-of-state ads are allowed for individuals owning farm property within the state that is being offered for sale (consisting of 10 acres or more).

Farmers Markets Provide Opportunity for Growers

By Kaitlyn Byrne
MSU Ag Communications

Finding a special product that consumers want can help growers stand out in the increasingly crowded farmers market.

Bill Evans, associate research professor with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at the Truck Crops Branch Experiment Station in Crystal Springs, said a growing number of consumers want fresh, local produce, and small growers can help provide it.

"Because of the increasing demand, we have new markets coming on the scene every spring, it seems -- and new growers, too," Evans said. "The organic and eco-conscious niches are also expanding, and small growers can serve these well."

Evans said consumer tastes are expanding, which opens up markets for many minor and unique crops, such as striped eggplants, heirloom tomatoes, and "weeds" for salad greens. Growers should consider what their local clientele wants when making planting decisions.

"Grow what you know, but also grow for your market," he said. "Small towns and traditional markets still want traditional crops. Some urban and upscale markets want 'the next big thing,' ethnic produce, or other items that extend far beyond our traditions of yellow squash, greens, and tomatoes."

Evans suggested beginning growers start out with something easy to grow and popular, such as mustard, turnip, collard greens, and squash.

He said some of the most profitable crops are also the most difficult to grow.

"Tomatoes can be a challenge but are great sellers," he said. "Beans and peas are fairly easy, but they're not big money makers. Fruits are in demand, but they are almost all perennial crops and need a lot of time and management."

Growers should prepare now for upcoming farmers markets to meet consumers' increasing demand for local produce.

Jeff Wilson, regional Extension horticulture specialist for the North Mississippi Research and Extension Center, said new growers should start out small while learning what local customers want and how to calculate input costs.

Wilson said new growers benefit by attending conferences and workshops to learn business tips from experienced growers.

"Growing the crop is the easy part," he said. "You must build a customer base. The best thing to do would be to attend educational programs to learn all you can before starting. I would also visit markets and see what others are doing."

Evans said new growers should contact local farmers markets early in the planning process to learn market regulations.

"A good market manager can help a new grower get off to a good start," he said. "I am a big proponent of growers respecting the privilege of growing food for others by keeping the produce in safe condition. There are also some great food safety workshops in and around Mississippi these days."

Evans said the "Mississippi State University Extension Service Garden Tabloid" and "Southeastern Vegetable Production Guide" contain useful information on planning crops. County Extension offices can direct growers toward other resources for the growing and business sides of the industry.

"Other growers will be happy to help you, too," he said. "Have fun with it. Unless you plan to grow into a true, full-time farmer, this is a sideline business that should make you smile at the beginning and at the end of the day."

MS Egg Marketing Board Seeks Artists for Easter Egg Competition

By Jennifer B. Thompson
Director of Petroleum Products
Inspection Division - MDAC

The Mississippi Egg Marketing Board is seeking artists, both professional and amateur, to submit a decorative Easter egg that represents the State of Mississippi and our culture. The chosen egg will be presented to First Lady Deborah Bryant during the Easter season.

Eggs must be decorated and hand delivered to the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board located at 121 North Jefferson Street, Jackson, in the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce Office Building between March 31 and April 4, 2014. Please call (601) 359-1111 to schedule delivery. Competing eggs will be on display at the Mississippi Farmers Market and the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Museum as well as online where the public can vote for their favorite. To obtain an application and guidelines, visit the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce's website, www.mdac.ms.gov, and look under "Alerts and Announcements." Submitted eggs will become the property of the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board.

Let your artistic ability showcase your vision of our state in the competition for the 2014 Mississippi Easter Egg. For additional information, please contact Jennifer Thompson at (601) 359-1111 or email jennifer@mdac.ms.gov.

Cattle Theft Investigation Leads to Arrests

By Jeff Stewart
Director of MS Agricultural and
Livestock Theft Bureau - MDAC

On February 10, the Mississippi Agricultural and Livestock Theft Bureau (MALTB), the law enforcement division of the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, arrested two individuals for livestock theft. The Bureau anticipates additional arrests and charges to be forthcoming in the future.

Lead MALTB Investigator, Mike McGowan, with assistance from the Holmes and Yazoo County Sheriff's Departments, arrested Terrance Deon Wade and Deonvick Adams both of Pickens, Mississippi, for the theft of 10 head of cattle from a victim in Yazoo County.

Agriculture Commissioner Cindy Hyde-Smith commended Investigator McGowan for his hard work and dedication and would like to thank the Yazoo and Holmes County Sheriff's Departments for assisting in this investigation. Hyde-Smith added, "I urge all livestock owners to brand their livestock for identification purposes for instances such as this. With the temptation of higher cattle prices, criminals look for easy targets such as unbranded and unmonitored livestock for possible theft and resale. By branding their livestock, farmers help provide a future deterrent against theft."

Jeff Stewart, Director of MALTB, says livestock theft is still a problem in Mississippi and referenced another recent case his office completed that involved the theft and further arrest of five suspects for stealing 91 head of cattle. He added that a brand can be considered a serial number for livestock and a good insurance policy for livestock owners against theft.

The Mississippi Agricultural and Livestock Theft Bureau enforces laws to prevent the theft of livestock, timber, and agricultural products, and investigates all agricultural crimes. The Bureau also handles the registration of all livestock brands in the State. The cost to register a brand is $5 for a registration period of 5 years.
