Cooking Channel Features Mississippi State Fair on Carnival Eats Season 4

JACKSON, Miss. — The Cooking Channel will feature the Mississippi State Fair on the fourth season of “Carnival Eats,” a show that celebrates carnival life and food, at 9 p.m. on Thursday, May 4.

In the episode, Carnival Eats’ host Noah Cappe will test out a beer-battered burger, Porkchos and a Mississippi Mud Fry while at the Mississippi State Fair. Cappe will also visit The Big Butler Fair in Butler, Pennsylvania during the episode.

Carnival Eats takes viewers on an international, food-frenzied roller coaster of culinary delights, to the new epicenter of carnival life — food, according to the Cooking Channel website. Food of every imaginable shape, size, color and taste are being created specifically for the connoisseurs who ply midways and fairgrounds, and Carnival Eats is there for every delicious bite.
