FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

July 25, 2007

What: Kid's Day – Fun events for the kids including fingerprinting, cooking, and other educational and hands-on activities.
When: Saturday, August 4 beginning at 9:00 a.m.
Where: Mississippi Farmers Market
929 High Street next to the Fairgrounds

As the summer begins to wind down, load up the car and bring your children to Kid's Day at the Mississippi Farmers Market for a day of fun and excitement on Saturday, August 4, from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Quality of Life Officers with the Jackson Police Department will be on hand for fingerprinting from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. Children can join Parents and Kids Magazine in making their own fresh peach smoothies and melon kabobs starting at 10:00 a.m. They will also have a chocolate fountain for dipping your favorite fruits. USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service will teach kids about the environment and natural resources by letting them make their own edible soil profiles. Kids can plant their very own tomato and pumpkin seeds to take home and watch grow, and they can experience what it is like to milk a cow. Admission is free.

The new Mississippi Farmers Market located at 929 High Street next to the Fairgrounds is open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday beginning at 9:00 a.m. Come early for the best selection. You never know what exciting things you will find at the Mississippi Farmers Market.
