Mississippi Egg Marketing Board Seeks Artists for Easter Egg Competition

The Mississippi Egg Marketing Board is seeking artists, both professional and amateur, to submit a decorative Easter egg that represents the State of Mississippi and our culture. The chosen egg will be presented to First Lady Deborah Bryant during the Easter season.

Eggs must be decorated and hand delivered to the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board located at 121 North Jefferson Street, Jackson, in the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce Office Building between March 31 and April 4, 2014. Please call (601) 359-1111 to schedule delivery. Competing eggs will be on display at the Mississippi Farmers Market and the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Museum as well as online where the public can vote for their favorite. To obtain an application and guidelines, visit the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce's website, www.mdac.ms.gov, and look under "Alerts and Announcements." Submitted eggs will become the property of the Mississippi Egg Marketing Board.

Let your artistic ability showcase your vision of our state in the competition for the 2014 Mississippi Easter Egg. For additional information, please contact Jennifer Thompson at (601) 359-1111 or email jennifer@mdac.ms.gov.
