Sale of Champions Buyers Break Previous Records

By Susan Collins-Smith

Young Mississippians took about 3,000 animals to Jackson to show at the Dixie National Livestock Show, but only 44 animals were judged worthy of competing in the annual Sale of Junior Champions.

Mikayla Shelton is one of hundreds of Mississippi youth who groom their goats, lambs, steers, and hogs all year long in hopes they make it to the sale, and after five years of competing, the Calhoun County 4-H'er finally earned the spot she had coveted for so long.

Calhoun County 4-H member Mikayla Shelton prepares her Mississippi-bred grand champion light heavyweight goat, Ready Or Not, for his turn in the show ring at the Dixie National Sale of Champions February 6 in Jackson. The 44 market goats, lambs, steers, and hogs brought a preliminary total of $369,150, setting a new record. (Photo by MSU Ag Communications/Susan Collins-Smith)

Shelton's Mississippi-bred grand champion goat, named Ready Or Not, brought $6,400 from charitable buyers who contributed to the February sale. Shelton and her brother Conner co-own Ready Or Not.

"It's overwhelming," said Shelton, a freshman and FFA member at Bruce High School. "It really hasn't sunk in yet, even though we're here."

Out of a herd of 40 does, Shelton chose seven to show throughout the year. She raised all of them from babies.

"I've worked each year to get better, and it is an honor to be here," she said. "It means so much more to me since I brought them up from kids."

Trent Barnett, Mississippi State University Extension

Calhoun County coordinator, said he has enjoyed watching Shelton mature in the show ring.

"It's really been fun to watch her do it on her own," Barnett said. "Even though her parents help her with some of the labor during the school year, Mikayla decides which animals to breed and then selects the kids she will work with throughout the year. She then chooses the best feeding and exercise plan for the animals and keeps them healthy."

Competitors invest a lot of time and energy preparing for livestock shows throughout the year, and this show is the ultimate reward for their hard work.

"This is the Super Bowl of the livestock shows," said Dean Jousan, Extension 4-H livestock specialist. "Kids are dedicated to all aspects of the development of their animals, and getting into the sale is very exciting."

The sale began in 1970 and has raised more than $5.49 million for Mississippi 4-H and FFA members.

At the 2014 sale, 13 hogs, 13 lambs, nine goats, and nine steers brought in a preliminary record total of $369,150, which exceeded last year's record total by more than $50,000.

A market steer and lamb both broke sales records. The steer sold for $28,000, and the lamb sold for $12,000.

Preliminary figures indicate steers brought a total of $107,500. Hogs brought a preliminary total of $93,750. Goats brought a preliminary total of $33,500. Lambs brought a preliminary total of $96,500.

The sale's promotional committee also raises educational scholarship funds each year. This year, the committee awarded six premier exhibitor scholarships worth $2,000 each and 29 scholarships worth $1,500 each. The committee has given out a total of $602,700 since 1993.

The 2014 Dixie National Livestock Show included 1,700 4-H and FFA youth and about 3,000 head of livestock.

Delicious Dinners for Two

Grilled Tuna Sandwich with Lemon-Chili Mayo

4 slices whole wheat or sourdough bread
1 1/2 tablespoons canola oil
1 8-ounce tuna fillet, about 1-inch thick
1/4 teaspoon plus 1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder, divided
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup low-fat mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon freshly grated lemon zest
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 1/2 cups watercress or baby arugula, tough stems removed

Preheat grill to medium-high. Lightly brush both sides of bread slices with oil. Brush tuna with the remaining oil and sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon chili powder and salt. Grill the tuna, turning once until cooked through, 4 to 6 minutes per side. Transfer to a clean cutting board. Grill the bread, turning once, until beginning to brown, about 1 minute per side. Combine mayonnaise, lemon zest, lemon juice, and the remaining 1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder in a small bowl. Thinly slice the tuna with the grain. To assemble the sandwiches, divide the lemon-chili mayonnaise between 2 slices of bread. Top with about 3/4 cup watercress (or arugula), the tuna, and the remaining slices of bread.

Barbecue Portobello Quesadillas

1/4 cup prepared barbecue sauce
1 1/2 teaspoons tomato paste
1 1/2 teaspoons cider vinegar
1/2 chipotle chile in adobo sauce, minced
1 tablespoon canola oil, divided
1/2 pound Portobello mushroom caps, gills removed & diced
1/2 medium onion, finely diced
2 8-to-10-inch whole-wheat tortillas
6 tablespoons shredded Monterey Jack cheese

Combine barbecue sauce, tomato paste, vinegar, and chipotle in a medium bowl. Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add mushrooms and cook, stirring occasionally, for 5 minutes. Add onion and cook, stirring, until the onion and mushrooms are beginning to brown, 5 to 7 minutes. Transfer the vegetables to the bowl with the barbecue sauce; stir to combine. Wipe excess oil from the pan; set aside. Place tortillas on a work surface. Spread 3 tablespoons cheese on half of each tortilla and top with one-fourth (about 1/2 cup) of the filling. Fold tortillas in half, pressing gently to flatten. Heat 1 teaspoon oil in the pan over medium heat. Add the quesadillas and cook; turning once, until golden on both sides, 3 to 4 minutes total. Cut quesadillas into wedges and serve.

Chopped Greek Salad with Chicken

2 1/2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
1 1/2 teaspoons chopped fresh dill or 1/2 teaspoon dried
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
3 cups chopped romaine lettuce
1 1/4 cups chopped cooked chicken
1 medium tomato, chopped
1/2 medium cucumber, peeled, seeded & chopped
1/4 cup finely chopped red onion
1/4 cup sliced ripe black olives
1/4 cup crumbled feta cheese

Whisk vinegar, oil, dill, garlic powder, salt, and pepper in a large bowl. Add lettuce, chicken, tomato, cucumber, onion, olives, and feta; toss to coat.

Moroccan-Style Stuffed Peppers

2 medium-to-large bell peppers, tops cut off & seeded
8 ounces lean (90% or leaner) ground beef
2 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 cup currants
1 teaspoon ground cumin
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 scant cup cooked brown rice
1 1/4 cups low-sodium vegetable juice, such as V8, divided
2 tablespoons chopped fresh mint, plus more for garnish
1/2 teaspoon freshly grated orange zest
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon freshly ground pepper

Place peppers upside-down in a small microwave-safe casserole dish. Add 1/2 -inch water to the dish and cover with a lid or inverted dinner plate. Microwave on High until the peppers are tender but still hold their shape, 3 to 6 minutes. Drain the water and turn the peppers right-side up. Meanwhile, cook beef and garlic in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high heat, breaking up the beef with a wooden spoon, until no longer pink, 4 to 6 minutes. Stir in currants, cumin, and cinnamon; cook for 1 minute. Stir in rice and cook for 30 seconds more. Remove from heat and stir in 1/4 cup vegetable juice, 2 tablespoons mint, orange zest, salt, and pepper. Spoon the beef mixture into the peppers; pour the remaining 1 cup vegetable juice into the dish and cover. Microwave until the juice and filling are hot, 2 to 3 minutes. Serve the peppers with the sauce from the dish; garnish with mint, if desired.

DOGS

Only HERDING & HUNTING dog breeds will be published. All dogs must be purebred. Mix breed dogs will not be allowed to advertise. Each subscriber is allowed to advertise only two dog breeds.

We cannot accept ads from any individual who is engaged in any type of puppy mill operation or acts as a dealer, broker, buncher, or agent in the business of buying and selling dogs and/or bred solely for profit rather than protection of breed integrity (as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture).

We do not list ads for any type of dogs at stud service. Only in-state residents are allowed to advertise within this category.

The Herding & Hunting dog breeds list utilized by the Mississippi Market Bulletin is endorsed by the Mississippi State Veterinarian and the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce.

It is the sole discretion of the Mississippi Market Bulletin to accept or reject any dog ad for submission.

Webinar Invitation

The USDA's Good Agricultural Practices (GAPs) Audit Program
An Interactive Discussion
Thursday, March 6, 2014
2:00 – 3:00 p.m. Eastern Time

Please join us for a live, interactive discussion via internet (a webinar), covering the food safety verification program for USDA's Good Agricultural Practices. The discussion has been developed exclusively for growers located in USDA StrikeForce areas and will cover the "How To's" of planning, plan implementation, and audit preparation for growers. If you grow, pack, ship, or sell fruits and vegetables, you won't want to miss this unique webinar!

Our formal presentation will run about 30 minutes, with the remaining time devoted to a live and interactive Question and Answer session.

Webinar Schedule

Presentation: Ralph Evans, Auditor Training Specialist for the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service Specialty Crops Inspection (SCI) Division, will provide the background and discuss the GAP practices and terminology. Ken Petersen, Head of SCI Division's Audit Programs, will lead the Q&A session.

Question and Answer Session: Additional time will be set aside for questions related to your unique business challenges, such as implementing your own food safety program. Questions may also be submitted in advance to Ralph.Evans@ams.usda.gov and we will do our best to answer those during the webinar.

This webinar, hosted by the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service's (AMS) Fruit and Vegetable Program, is free and available to anyone with Internet access. Space is limited to the first 500 people who sign up, so please register early. Visit (<http://bit.ly/19ZkBMT>) to register today!

We will host webinars on more AMS programs and services throughout the year. To view previous webinars online, visit our Webinar Archive.

If you have any questions about the webinars or AMS, please contact Christopher Purdy at (202) 720-3209 or christopher.purdy@ams.usda.gov.

We hope to see you online! REGISTER TODAY!

Tomato Short Course Set For March 4 and 5

By Susan Collins-Smith
MSU Ag Communications

Greenhouse tomato growers can learn everything from greenhouse design to budgeting during the 24th annual Mississippi Greenhouse Tomato Short Course March 4-5 in Raymond.

Experts from the Mississippi State University Extension Service, the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station, the University of Florida Suwannee Valley Agricultural Extension Center, Auburn University and the tomato industry will present information to help current growers and those interested in starting a greenhouse tomato business.

The workshop will be at the Eagle Ridge Conference Center, 1500 Raymond Lake Road.

Topics include components of the greenhouse system; greenhouse design, engineering and environmental control; alternative heating options; marketing; budgeting; current research; plant nutrition; alternative crops; water sanitation; using social media; Good Agricultural Practices certification; and disease and pest management.

The course is the longest-running workshop in the United States for greenhouse tomato growers and in recent years, has attracted participants from more than 25 states, Canada, the Caribbean and Latin America.

Exhibitors from the U.S. and Canada will display and demonstrate their products.

For more information, visit <http://www.greenhousetomatosc.com> or contact Rick Snyder at rick.snyder@msstate.edu or 601-892-3731.

CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE

Small Town, Mississippi

By Lise Foy, Director
MS Agriculture & Forestry Museum

Small Town, Mississippi, located at the Ag Museum, is an established replica of a typical rural community of the 1920's era. There is a general store, church, post office, two-room school, filling station, one room jail, blacksmith shop, print shop, grist mill, cotton gin, and a farmstead. It was determined during the establishment of Small Town in the 1980's that it would not be complete without a Masonic Lodge.

The reason for inclusion of the Masonic Lodge was because for the first two centuries in the history of this nation, next to the church, Masonry helped to mold the character of the nation.

Museum Lodge No. 636 is an active lodge and was constructed to look like typical Masonic Lodges of the 1920's. Its structure is designed after Woodland Lodge No. 542 in Woodland, Mississippi. A variety of materials from the salvaged Woodland Lodge were used in constructing the ceiling, floor, walls, doors, and window frames. The Masonic Lodge was a vital part of everyday life in small towns. Frequently, the first floor was used as a voting precinct, school house, and community meeting place.

Masonry has been defined as a "system of morality, veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols." The symbols of Masonry displayed in Museum Lodge 636 standing alone have little intrinsic value, but when viewed in the context of what they represent, their inherent value is priceless. We are not just preserving inanimate objects; we are honoring a way of life.

On Thursday, February 13, the Mississippi Main Street Association (MMSA) designated the City of Small Town, Mississippi, an official Mississippi Main Street Community.

The designation ceremony was held at 2 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge at the Ag Museum.

"Small Town, Mississippi, is a unique treasure that we are fortunate to have at the Ag Museum," said Cindy Hyde-Smith, Mississippi Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce. "It depicts a 1920's town complete with a blacksmith shop, church, two-room school, and operating general store."

"Receiving the Mississippi Main Street designation is valuable as we move toward making Small Town a 'living' exhibit on a regular basis, breathing life into the buildings so visitors can experience the history of Mississippi agricultural towns," Hyde-Smith said.

The Mississippi Main Street Association is an economic development program of the National Main Street Center and the Mississippi Development Authority with many allied partners. MMSA provides training and technical assistance based on the Main Street Four-Point Approach® - Organization, Promotion, Design, and Economic Restructuring - to more than 50 Main Street cities and towns in the state. Since 1993, MMSA has provided more than $4 billion in public and private re-investment back into Main Street communities. For more information, visit www.msmainstreet.com.

"Small Town, Mississippi at the Ag Museum is facing some of the same challenges as many of our small communities across the state," Wilson said. "Small Town is home to many businesses and attractions that are not well-known to most Mississippians and many tourists.

"We will be focusing on marketing opportunities, placemaking, wayfinding, and recruiting creative economy businesses to join those that already exist in Small Town," he said.

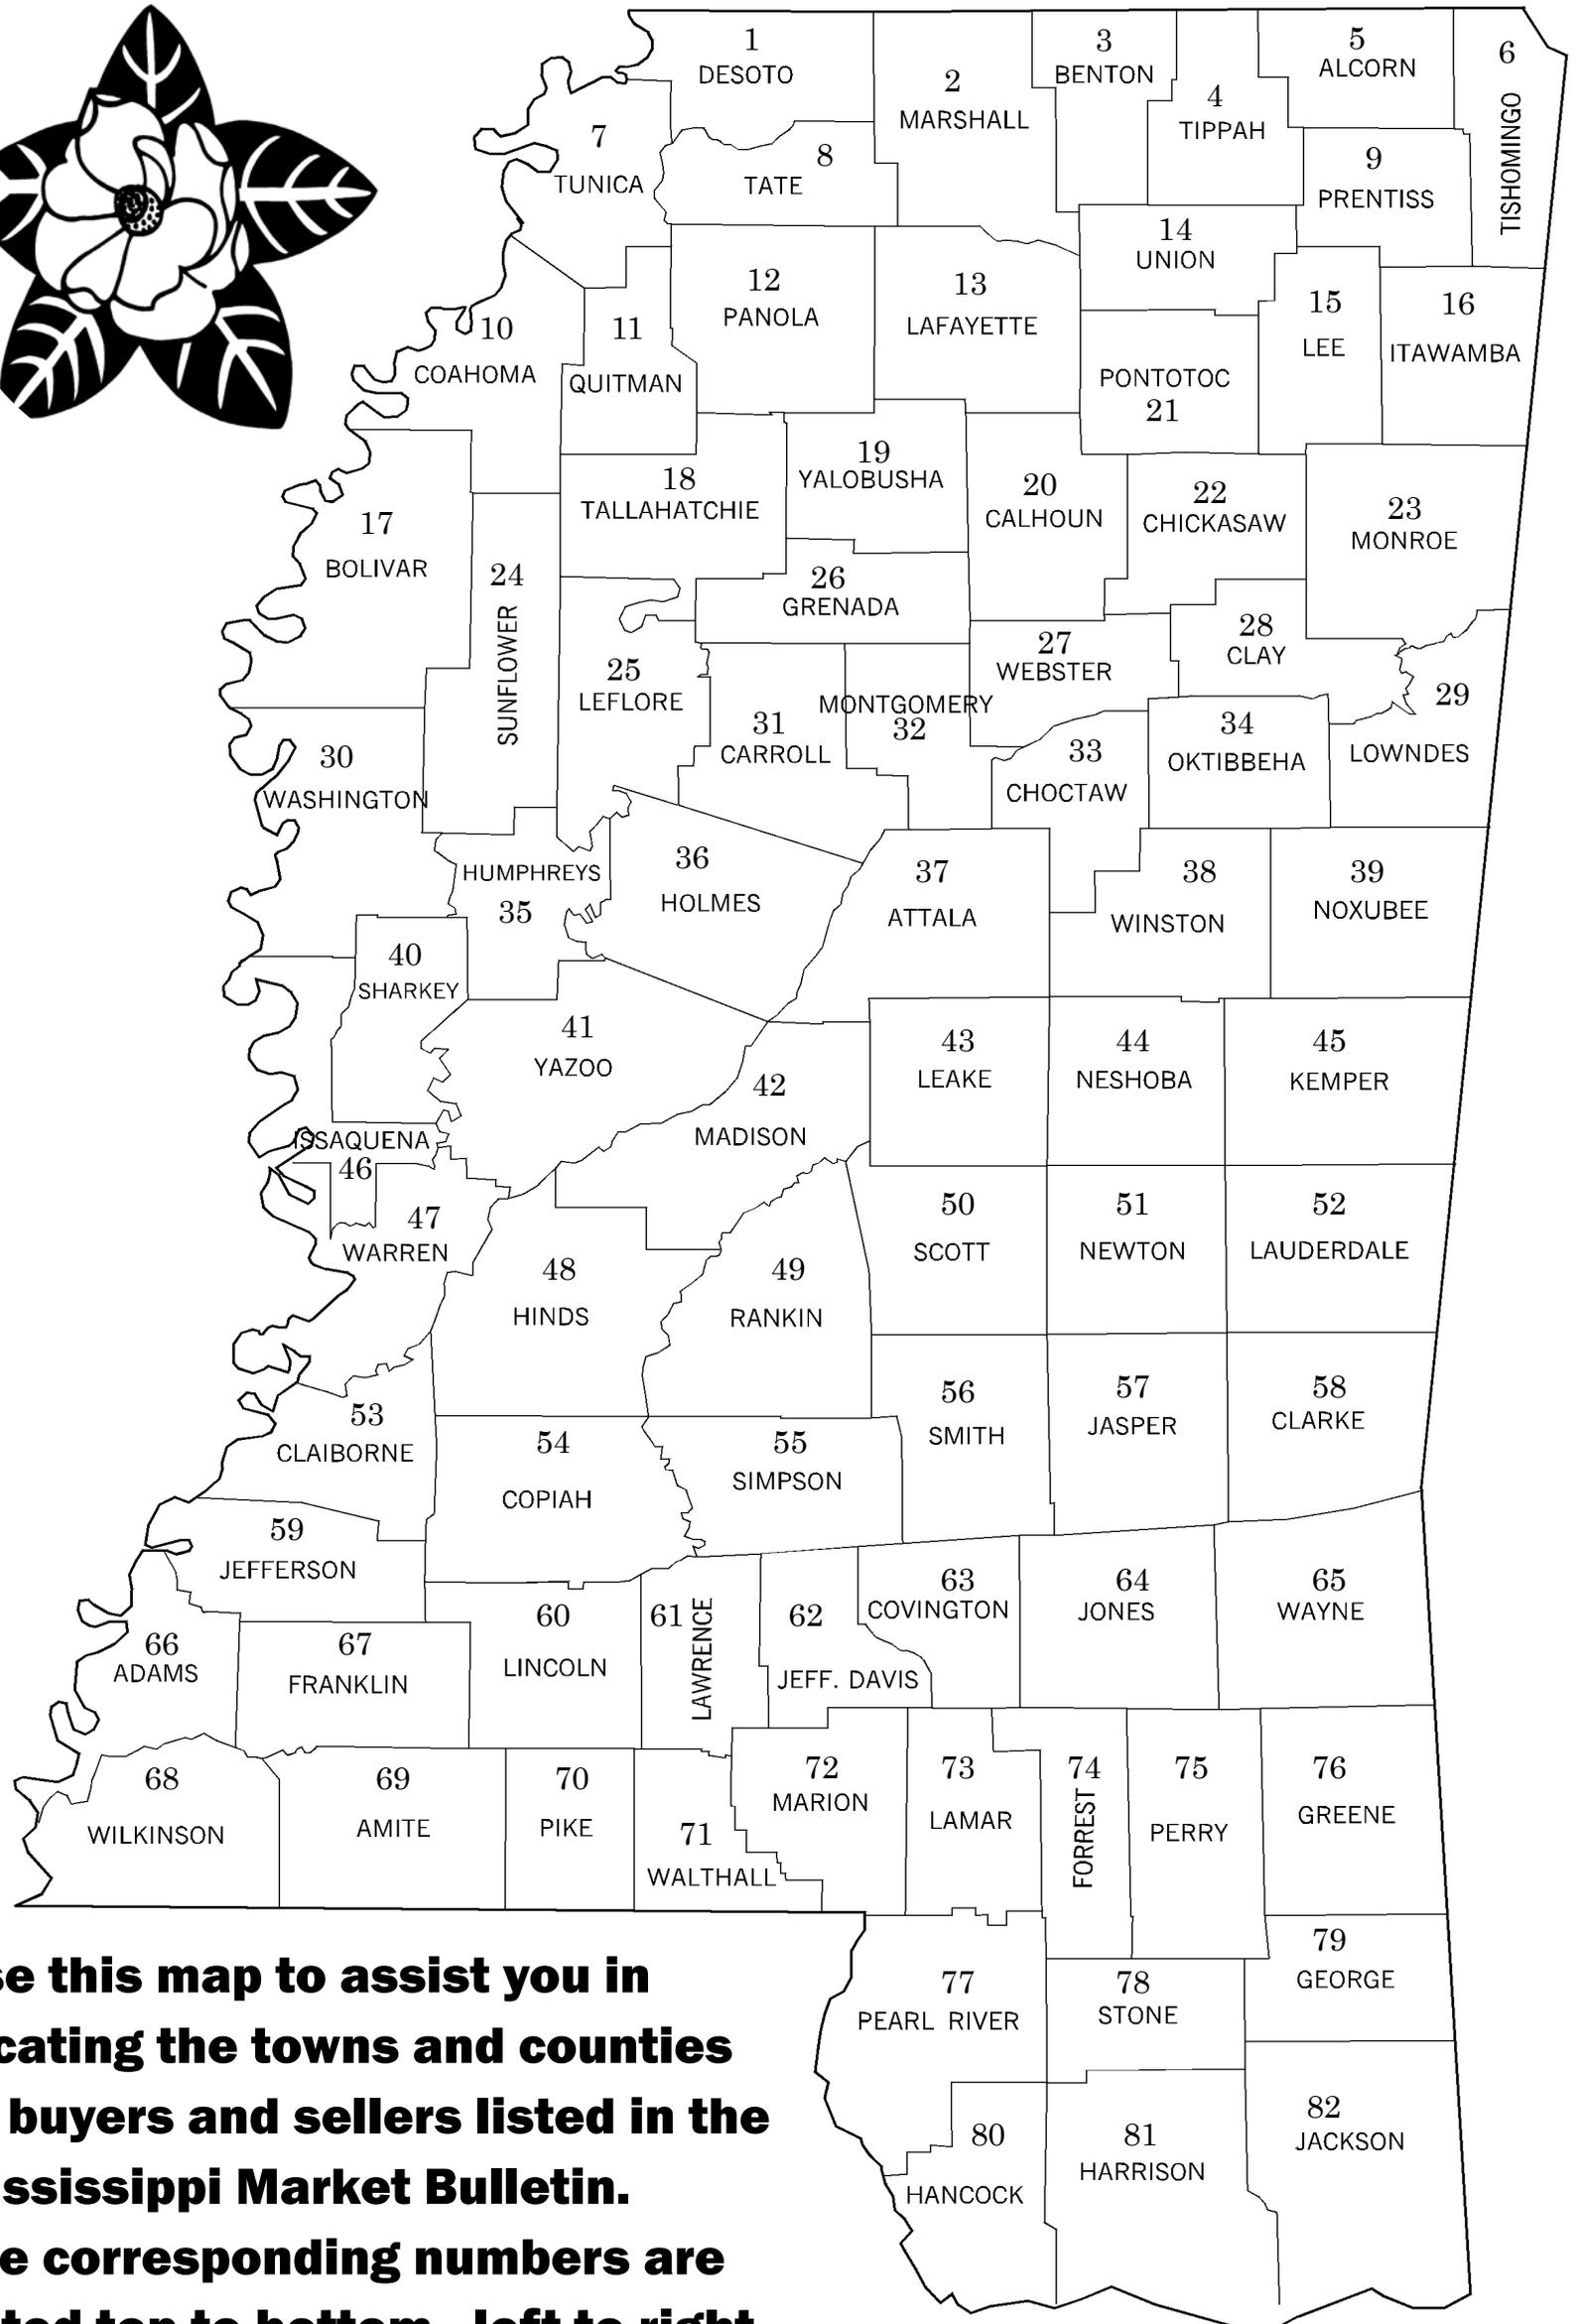

The Ag Museum is located at 1150 Lakeland Drive in Jackson and is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In addition to our gallery and exhibit spaces, the Ag Museum also has room for your event, whether it's a meeting, a wedding, or other special event. Call (601) 432-4500 for information.

Like us on facebook at www.facebook.com/msagmuseum, visit our website at www.msagmuseum.org and sign up for our monthly newsletter to track the progress of the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum renovations.

The Mississippi Main Street Association (MMSA) designated the City of Small Town, Mississippi located on the grounds of the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum, as an official Mississippi Main Street Community. Taking part in the presentation were (left to right) Cindy Hyde-Smith, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, State of Mississippi; Lise Foy, Director, Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum; Bob Wilson, Executive Director, MMSA; Joy Foy, Director of Asset Development Division, Mississippi Development Authority; and Ken P'Poole, Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer, Mississippi Department of Archives and History.

Advertising Guidelines

The Mississippi Market Bulletin is published on the 1st and 15th of each month by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The Mississippi Market Bulletin is an important way for the Department to disseminate news and information about issues affecting Mississippi's agriculture industry and the Department's operations.

Through its classified advertising section, the Bulletin provides a forum for Mississippi residents to buy and sell agricultural related items while also giving statewide exposure to small farmers who might not normally have the economic resources for such widespread advertising. The Bulletin does not publish commercial or display ads and all items offered for sale must have been produced, raised, grown or operated on the seller's property. Businesses, corporations, dealerships, brokers or other commercial enterprises are not allowed to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin.

Advertising rules and guidelines have been established for the Mississippi Market Bulletin in order to comply with regulations enforced by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and to maintain the objectives of the publication. The staff of the Mississippi Market Bulletin reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any advertisement.

The Mississippi Market Bulletin assumes no responsibility for any notice appearing in the Bulletin nor for any transaction resulting from published notices. Advertisers are cautioned that it is against the law to misrepresent any product offered for sale in public notices or advertisements carried in any publication that is delivered by the United States Postal Service.

- In order to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin you must be a subscriber. To place an ad, you must include your name, mailing address and account number that the subscription is listed under on each ad that you submit (this information will not be printed). Each subscriber is allowed to advertise two ads in the Bulletin, listing one ad per category.
- All listings must be agriculture related (raised, grown, produced or operated on your farm). At the top of your ad, write the category that the ad should be listed under. We reserve the right to edit, revise or reject each ad. Please print or type your ad.
- There is a 30-word limit for classified advertisements, this includes: price (on the item you are selling), your city, county and telephone number or name and complete address must be included in the ad if you do not list a telephone number. Ads cannot be held over from one issue to another. You must submit them for each issue.
- Out-of-state residents are not eligible to advertise with the following exceptions: Out-of-state ads are allowed in the "Wanting To Buy" category. Out-of-state ads are allowed for individuals owning farm property within the state that is being offered for sale (consisting of 10 acres or more).

Advertising Deadline Dates

MARCH 15 ISSUE.....DEADLINE MON., MAR. 3, 2014 • 12:00 NOON

APRIL 1 ISSUE.....DEADLINE MON., MAR. 17, 2014 • 12:00 NOON

You must submit your ad for each issue. We do not hold ads over for multiple insertion.

Advertisement Submission Form

In order to advertise you must be a subscriber.

All classified ads must be 30 words or less.

We cannot run items for sale without a price.

Ag Commissioner Makes Blair E. Batson Patients Cowboys for a Day

By Paige Manning
Director of Marketing and Public Relations - MDAC

Patients at Blair E. Batson Children's Hospital received a special treat as they got the chance to be cowboys and cowgirls for a day. Mississippi Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce Cindy Hyde-Smith along with professional rodeo clown Lecile Harris, Miss Rodeo America 2014 Paige Nicholson from Lawrence, MS, Miss Dixie National 2014 Taylor McNair of Learned, MS, Junior Miss Dixie National 2014 Summer Weldon of Martin, TN, Miss Mississippi High School Rodeo Kaytlyn McCarty of McComb, MS, bullfighter Kenny Bergeron of Eunice, LA, and Jimmie Nichols with Grabuone Outfitters visited with the patients bringing part of the Dixie National Rodeo with them. Each child received a cowboy hat and bandana compliments of First South Farm Credit. The patients had the opportunity to interact with the clowns and Rodeo Queens and get autographs.

"The patients at Blair E. Batson are very special, and many of them have been through so much. We wanted to make today special for them by letting them meet some of the stars of the Dixie National Rodeo," said Agriculture Commissioner Cindy Hyde-Smith.

"The rodeo clowns, queens, and bullfighters bring added excitement to the Dixie National Rodeo. Since the patients are not able to physically come to one of the shows, we wanted to bring a little bit of the rodeo to them," continued Hyde-Smith.

As another special treat, twenty current and former Blair E. Batson patients and their siblings were invited to participate in the Dixie National Parade this past weekend. They rode on the float belonging to Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum which won Best Corporate Float.

Express Clydesdales Made Huge Appearance During Dixie National Parade

The Express Clydesdales from Yukon, Oklahoma, were a huge crowd pleaser during the 2014 Dixie National Parade in Jackson. These beautiful horses travel across North America as ambassadors for Express Ranch and help raise millions of dollars for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and other charities. On the road, the Express Clydesdales perform at various shows and events, pulling a magnificent stage coach specifically designed for Express. Of a rare black and white color, each Express Clydesdale stands more than eight feet high and weighs over 2,000 pounds. They consume about 12 pounds of feed, 12-15 pounds of hay, and 30 gallons of water in a day with occasional treats of apples and carrots. Commissioner Cindy Hyde-Smith (far right), was the grand marshal for the parade. Her daughter, Anna-Michael (middle), also had the opportunity to ride with the world-famous Express Clydesdales during the parade. (Photo by Greg Jenson/The Clarion-Ledger)
