Step into Spring at the 2015 Garden Extravaganza in Jackson

By Haley Barrett
Mississippi Nursery & Landscape
Association, Inc.

Join us for the 18th Annual Garden Extravaganza (formerly the Jackson Garden & Patio Show) March 20, 21, & 22 at the Mississippi Trade Mart on the Fairgrounds.

The Mississippi Nursery & Landscape Association (MNLA) is excited to bring so many vendors together in one central location for all of your garden and patio needs - flowers, trees, landscape professionals, equipment, garden accessories, yard art, ironwork, pottery and much, much more. Admission is only $6 per person. Children 15 & under get in free, and as always, parking is free.

New for 2015 - Preview Party on Thursday, March 19 from 6 - 9 p.m. Get a jump on the plant selection and bring your own container, letting the garden experts on hand help you design and select your material. Then, pull up a chair and let John David Williams and Catherine Strange share with you all the wonderful ways you can use plant materials out of your yard in their session, "From Gardens To Guests," where they will demonstrate decorating and entertaining ideas using what you can grow in your yard or find in your local grocery store. Tickets are only $30 and can be purchased by contacting MNLA at 601-919-8111 or haleymnla@aol.com.

Join us for gardening seminars and demonstrations all three days. Our exciting 'how to' demonstrations and seminars will be located on the showroom floor and will include topics such as: Hot Plants for 2015, Mixed Containers, and much more. And, since the Jackson Garden & Patio Show is a family friendly event, we have also added 'make and take' demonstrations to the Children's Activity Area to teach kids fun gardening skills. Ball Seed Company and BWI Companies have teamed up with MNLA to sponsor this area. For a complete list of seminars and demonstrations, please visit www.msnla.org. All seminars and demonstrations are free with paid admission.

The 2015 Garden Extravaganza provides visitors with products, services, and ideas for garden, landscaping, and patio decor.

As in years past, attendees will get the opportunity to view several of central Mississippi's finest landscapers' work in the Outdoor Living Spaces competition area. These Outdoor Living Spaces will be in the middle of the exhibit hall, will serve as the focal point for this year's show, and will give you great ideas on how to make your outdoor space the best it can be.

As always, the experts from Mississippi State University Extension Service will be there to answer any questions, provide information, and test soil for free. While at the show, be sure and register for fabulous door prizes donated from our wonderful exhibitors.

Of course, the real stars of the show are always the flowers. You'll find this year's Mississippi Medallion Award Winners, tropicals, ferns, trees, bedding plants and tons of garden and outdoor accessories.

Watch for advertisements featuring a $5 off coupon, good on $50 purchases at any exhibitors' booth.

Visit our website at www.msnla.org, find us on Facebook, or call 601-919-8111 for more information about the 2015 Garden Extravaganza. Like us on Facebook for a chance to win tickets - Mississippi Garden & Patio Shows. This year's event is sponsored by Miss 103, Entergy Mississippi, and Regions Bank.

From Our Kitchen To Yours

Sensational Spring Salads

Chicken Salad with Red Potatoes

1 pound red potatoes cut into 1-inch cubes
1/3 cup olive oil
3 tablespoons white balsamic vinegar or lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
1/4 teaspoon red pepper flakes
3 cups chicken, cooked & cut into 1-inch cubes (or meat from a rotisserie chicken)
1/2 medium sweet yellow pepper, diced
1/3 cup green onions, diced
1/2 cup Kalamata olives, chopped (optional)

Steam potatoes until tender, but not mushy. Rinse in cold water and set aside to cool. In a small bowl, whisk together olive oil, vinegar, salt, black pepper and red pepper flakes to make a dressing. In a large bowl, mix together chicken, yellow pepper, potatoes, green onions and olives (if using). Pour dressing over all and gently stir until chicken and vegetables are coated. Serve chilled or at room temperature. Stir again right before serving.

Carrot Cake Salad

1 pound baby carrots, shredded (roughly 4 1/2 - 5 cups)
3/4 cup golden raisins
2/3 cup dates, chopped
2/3 cup fresh pineapple, diced
1/4 cup reduced-fat or light mayonnaise
2 tablespoons reduced-fat or light sour cream
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon lemon zest
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup honey-roasted pecan pieces

In a large bowl, lightly toss shredded carrots, raisins, dates and pineapple. In a small bowl, whisk together the mayonnaise, sour cream, lemon juice, zest, sugar and salt. Pour over carrot mixture and toss thoroughly to blend. Chill at least one hour to allow flavors to meld. Right before serving, stir in pecan pieces.

Brown Rice Salad with Pears, Walnuts and Gorgonzola

3 1/2 cups medium – or long-grain brown rice, cooked
1 large red Anjou pear, cored & diced
2/3 cup green onions, chopped
1/2 cup walnuts, toasted & chopped
2 ounces gorgonzola cheese, crumbled
2 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
2 1/2 tablespoons white balsamic vinegar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

In a medium bowl, combine rice, pear, onions, walnuts and cheese. Whisk oil, vinegar, salt and pepper together in a small bowl and pour over rice mixture. Toss lightly to blend all ingredients. Serve immediately.

Spring Green Tortellini Pasta Salad

20 ounces cheese tortellini
2 cups kale, packed
12 ounces fresh asparagus, trimmed & cut into 1-inch long pieces
2 cups fresh peas
1/2 cup fresh basil, chopped
1/3 cup olive oil
1/3 cup mayonnaise or Greek yogurt
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 cup Parmesan cheese, shredded
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
1/2 teaspoon coarse salt

Bring 5 quarts of water to a boil. Add pasta and cook for 7 to 9 minutes, until al dente. Rinse and set aside in a large bowl. In another large pot, bring 4 quarts of water to a boil. Add kale, peas and asparagus. Simmer until vegetables are crisp-tender, about 6 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat and rinse in cold water. Drain well. Add vegetables to pasta. Whisk together all remaining ingredients to make dressing; pour over pasta. Stir, and chill for at least 2 hours.

Wilted Spinach Salad with Warm Bacon Vinaigrette

10 ounces baby spinach
4 ounces bacon, cut into 1/4-inch pieces
2 tablespoons olive oil
1/2 small red onion, thinly sliced
1/2 teaspoon kosher salt
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 teaspoon sugar
1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar
1 tablespoon red wine vinegar
2 hard-boiled eggs
5 ounces grape tomatoes (about half a package), sliced in half lengthwise

Place spinach in a large bowl. Fry bacon in medium skillet over medium heat until crisp, about 5 minutes. Remove bacon but leave grease in the skillet. Return skillet to medium heat and add oil, onion, salt, pepper and sugar. Cook, stirring occasionally, 2 to 3 minutes or until onion is slightly softened. Add vinegar and swirl to incorporate. Pour warm dressing over spinach and toss gently to wilt. Sprinkle bacon over the salad, grate the eggs, and top with grape tomato slices.

REMEMBER

You are only allowed to advertise TWO ADS throughout the entire Mississippi Market Bulletin, only ONE AD per category. All classified ads must be 30-words or less.

DOGS

Only HERDING & HUNTING dog breeds will be published. All dogs must be purebred. Mix breed dogs will not be allowed to advertise. Each subscriber is allowed to advertise only two dog breeds.

We cannot accept ads from any individual who is engaged in any type of puppy mill operation or acts as a dealer, broker, buncher, or agent in the business of buying and selling dogs and/or bred solely for profit rather than protection of breed integrity (as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture).

We do not list ads for any type of dogs at stud service. Only in-state residents are allowed to advertise within this category.

The Herding & Hunting dog breeds list utilized by the Mississippi Market Bulletin is endorsed by the Mississippi State Veterinarian and the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce.

It is the sole discretion of the Mississippi Market Bulletin to accept or reject any dog ad for submission.

A Big Tall Tale

By Lise Foy, Director
MS Agriculture & Forestry Museum

It has been cold this winter...

Well now, one winter it was so cold that all the geese flew backward and all the fish moved south and even the snow turned blue. Late at night, it got so frigid that all spoken words froze solid afore they could be heard. People had to wait until sunup to find out what folks were talking about the night before.

Paul Bunyan went out walking in the woods one day during that Winter of the Blue Snow. He was knee-deep in blue snow when he heard a funny sound between a bleat and a snort. Looking down, he saw a teeny-tiny baby blue ox jest a hopping about in the snow and snorting with rage on account of he was too short to see over the drifts.

Paul Bunyan laughed when he saw the spunky little critter and took the little blue mite home with him. He warmed the little ox up by the fire and the little fellow fluffed up and dried out, but he remained as blue as the snow that had stained him in the first place. So Paul named him Babe the Blue Ox. - according to S. E. Schlosser.

In the early 1900's, logging camps were at their peak when there was a reported 500,000 lumberjacks in the United States. These men earned praise for their skills in doing their work, for being competitive, and for being aggressive. When not at work, they played rough games, told tall tales, and won reputations for consuming large amounts of food.

Paul Bunyan is part of American Folklore from this era.

Paul Bunyan's exploits revolve around the tall tales of his super-human labors, and he is customarily accompanied by Babe the Blue Ox. During the month of March, the Ag Museum will feature Forestry Days each Thursday from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m., when Paul Bunyan will make an appearance. He will tell the stories of our forest, about the different types of trees in Mississippi and how we use them today. He will share about the tools used throughout history to harvest the forest and the story of innovation.

The Heritage Center Gallery features exhibits that tell the story of developments in the forestry industry from early Mississippi settlers to modern industrial methods. Panels tell the stories of life in the logging camps. Some of the facts found in research about loggers and lumberjacks and division of labor in the camps definitely lend themselves to development of 'tall tales.'

- Whistle Punk - His job was to sound a whistle as a signal to the yarder operator controlling the movement of logs and act as a safety lookout, and a good whistle punk had to be alert and think fast as the safety of the others depended on him.

- High Climber - (also known as a tree topper) used iron climbing hooks and rope to ascend a tall tree in the landing area of the logging site, where he would chop off limbs as he climbed, chop off the top of the tree, and finally attach pulleys and rigging to the tree so it could be used as a spar so logs could be skidded into the landing.

- Choker Setter - attached steel cables (or chokers) to downed logs so they could be dragged into the landing by the yarder.

- Chaser - removed the chokers once the logs were at the landing. Choker setters and chasers were often entry-level positions on logging crews, with more experienced loggers seeking to move up to more skill-intensive positions such as yarder operator and high climber, or supervisory positions such as hook tender.

- Fallers and Buckers - performed the actual felling and bucking of trees, specialized job positions despite the common perception that all loggers cut trees.

- Roller - "rolled" the log by walking the log down river. Spiked boots known as "caulks" or "corks" were used for log rolling and often worn by lumberjacks as their regular footwear.

Paul Bunyan likely performed all of these tasks and will be on hand to tell you some tall tales about it while you view our pole axes, cross-cut saws, and Lindsay Log Wagon. Join us! You are sure to be entertained while you learn some Mississippi history. Visitors to the Ag Museum during these times can have their picture taken with Paul Bunyan, enjoy a demonstration of the 1920's era sawmill located in Small Town, Mississippi, and tour the forestry themed nature trail.

Disclaimer: Babe the Blue Ox will not be on site, and the sawmill demonstration is dependent on cooperation from our 100 year old equipment.

The Ag Museum is located at 1150 Lakeland Drive in Jackson and is open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In addition to our gallery and exhibit spaces, the Ag Museum also has room for your event, whether it's a meeting, a wedding or other special event. Advertising Guidelines

The Mississippi Market Bulletin is published on the 1st and 15th of each month by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. The Mississippi Market Bulletin is an important way for the Department to disseminate news and information about issues affecting Mississippi's agriculture industry and the Department's operations.

Through its classified advertising section, the Bulletin provides a forum for Mississippi residents to buy and sell agricultural related items while also giving statewide exposure to small farmers who might not normally have the economic resources for such widespread advertising. The Bulletin does not publish commercial or display ads and all items offered for sale must have been produced, raised, grown or operated on the seller's property. Businesses, corporations, dealerships, brokers or other commercial enterprises are not allowed to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin.

Advertising rules and guidelines have been established for the Mississippi Market Bulletin in order to comply with regulations enforced by the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce and to maintain the objectives of the publication. The staff of the Mississippi Market Bulletin reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any advertisement.

The Mississippi Market Bulletin assumes no responsibility for any notice appearing in the Bulletin nor for any transaction resulting from published notices. Advertisers are cautioned that it is against the law to misrepresent any product offered for sale in public notices or advertisements carried in any publication that is delivered by the United States Postal Service.

- In order to advertise in the Mississippi Market Bulletin you must be a subscriber. To place an ad, you must include your name, mailing address and account number that the subscription is listed under on each ad that you submit (this information will not be printed). Each subscriber is allowed to advertise two ads in the Bulletin, listing one ad per category.
- All listings must be agriculture related (raised, grown, produced or operated on your farm). At the top of your ad, write the category that the ad should be listed under. We reserve the right to edit, revise or reject each ad. Please print or type your ad.
- There is a 30-word limit for classified advertisements, this includes: price (on the item you are selling), your city, county and telephone number or name and complete address must be included in the ad if you do not list a telephone number. Ads cannot be held over from one issue to another. You must submit them for each issue.
- Out-of-state residents are not eligible to advertise with the following exceptions: Out-of-state ads are allowed in the "Wanting To Buy" category. Out-of-state ads are allowed for individuals owning farm property within the state that is being offered for sale (consisting of 10 acres or more).

Advertising Deadline Dates

APRIL 1 ISSUE.....DEADLINE MON., MAR. 16, 2015 • 12:00 NOON

APRIL 15 ISSUE.....DEADLINE MON., MAR. 30, 2015 • 12:00 NOON

You must submit your ad for each issue. We do not hold ads over for multiple insertion.

Advertisement Submission Form

In order to advertise you must be a subscriber.

All classified ads must be 30 words or less.

We cannot run items for sale without a price.

Agriculture Council of America Announces 2015 National Ag Day

By Agriculture Council of America

The Agriculture Council of America (ACA) will host National Agriculture Day on March 18, 2015. This will mark the 42nd anniversary of National Ag Day which is celebrated in classrooms and communities across the country. The theme for National Ag Day is "Agriculture: Sustaining Future Generations."

National Ag Day is a time when producers, agricultural associations, corporations, universities, government agencies and countless others across America gather to recognize and celebrate the abundance provided by American agriculture.

Each American farmer feeds more than 144 people...a dramatic increase from 25 people in the 1960s. Quite simply, American agriculture is doing more - and doing it better. As the world population soars, there is an even greater demand for the food and fiber produced in the United States.

The National Ag Day program believes that every American should:

- Understand how food, fiber and renewable resource products are produced.

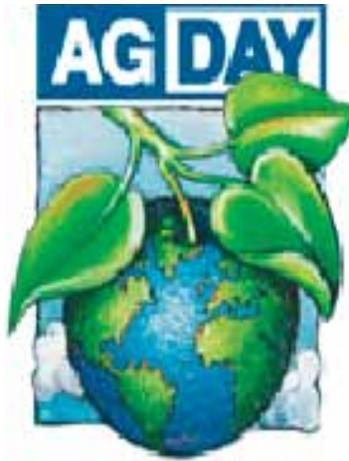

- Value the essential role of agriculture in maintaining a strong economy.

- Appreciate the role agriculture plays in providing safe, abundant and affordable products.

- Acknowledge and consider career opportunities in the agriculture, food, fiber and renewable resource industries.

Agriculture provides almost everything we eat, use and wear on a daily basis, and is increasingly contributing to fuel and other bio-products. Each year, members of the agricultural industry gather together to promote American agriculture. This effort helps educate millions of consumers.

By far, the most effective part of this program is the role you play in helping spread the word. A few generations ago, most Americans were directly involved in-or had relatives or friends involved in-agricultural-related endeavors. Today, that is no longer the case. That is why it is so important that we join together at the community level...our voices, in concert, become a shout that carries our message a great deal further than any one of us can do alone! We are pleased that you have joined this effort to promote American agriculture. For more information about National Ag Day visit www.agday.org.

Get Ready for Spring Planting, Landscaping

Garden centers and plant outlets are now stocking up on a variety of trees, and it pays to do a little research before selecting what to plant.

Consumers often ask for fast-growing trees, such as willow and river birch, but these quick growers tend to have weak wood and often suffer damage in wind or ice storms.

Many people opt for specific ornamental characteristics, such as profuse blooms or good fall color. Some of the popular trees, such as Bradford pear and sugar maple, which have these characteristics, also suffer from short lives, weak wood, or both.

Trees such as red maple, sweet bay magnolia, and red oak tend to grow at a medium rate but suffer less damage than their faster-growing counterparts.

Late fall and winter are the best times to plant trees in Mississippi, but they can be planted in spring with supplemental watering during dry periods.

There are a few points to consider before planting or placing a tree in the landscape. Avoid placing trees where they may cause future problems, such as underneath or near overhead utility wires and near building rooflines.

Also, check for all buried lines and wires before digging by calling Mississippi One-Call at 800-227-6477 or 811. Large trees need plenty of room for their roots to grow and should be kept at least 30 feet from foundations and pavement.

While there are a number of trees that can be grown in Mississippi, it is always best to select trees that resist insect or disease problems, are tolerant of drought, and are adapted to the state's temperature extremes. Many native trees are long-lived and hardy species; these include Southern magnolia, live oak, red oak, bald cypress, American holly, swamp chestnut oak, nuttall oak, willow oak, deciduous holly, yaupon holly, eastern red cedar, black gum, redbud, hawthorn and wax myrtle.

Exotic species that do well in Mississippi include crape myrtle, dawn redwood, ginkgo, Chinese elm, amelanchier, Kousa dogwood, and saucer magnolia.

This time of year, trees are sold in three different forms, including container, bare root, and balled-and-burlap. When buying container-grown trees, remove the pot and make sure that the roots are not curling or appear dead or excessively brown.

Bare root trees are sold without soil and should be kept moist. Check them for broken or decayed roots.

Balled-and-burlap trees are larger field-grown trees. It is fine to leave the burlap on the root ball at planting, but remove any metal or plastic cages, wraps or ties.

Be sure to avoid dropping the trees or breaking roots. Plant so the root ball is even with or just above the soil line.
